1. The dissolution of Czechoslovak religious orders was intended to take place on 1 Jul 53 under the name of Action B. The date has been postponed and is now uncertain.
2. The Czech State Security Service has received secret orders to dissolve the religious orders at the earliest possible date, and has been told it will be held responsible for the placing of agents among the monks, the selection of agents from among the monks and nuns, and the preparation of lists of possible future agents.
